ST. MARCOS AGAIN.

The track has been in such good condition at Harlem in the last week that the rain that fell yesterday was only able to render it a shade slow and those owners that scratched their horses thinking that it would be muddy were most beautifully deceived. The track was not soft enough to prevent horses that run best over a pasteboard from winning, although several surprises bobbed up during the afternoon's sport. The most prominent race of the day was the sixth, a dash of one and one-eighth miles for three-year-olds and upward. The finish was by far the most exciting of the day, Strangest coming strongly in the last eighth and beating out Searcher by three-quarters of a length, while the latter beat Charley O'Brien a neck for second place.

Senator Beveridge led by a length from Charley O'Brien up to the last quarter with the rest well up, but once straightened for home the first named retired quickly and Searcher assumed what seemed like a winning lead. About the last sixteenth, however, there was a general closing up outside of Senator Beveridge. Strangest proved much the best in the closing strides, coming with a rush on the inside rail and gradually going away as the wire was passed. Leo Newell was lapped on Charley O'Brien at the finish and about ran his race. Senator Beveridge ran far below expectations.

St. Marcos when he won the fourth race a dash of one and one sixteenth miles placed the fourth consecutive victory to his credit since racing hereabouts. He has proved himself to be a colt of good class and has won all his races in an easy fashion. He was pitted against so good a horse as Federal yesterday and made him look cheap. The former held a fair lead up to the head of the stretch where Coburn, who had always been lying second to the leader on St. Marcos, called upon him and he came away with a dash winning without much effort by a length, while Federal beat Kunja two for second place. The last named ran the best race she has shown hereabout this year. Brutal was the victim of a poor ride being cut off several times in the early part of the contest. Ransom is unable to make the gelding run to his true form.

The steeplechase resulted in a pretty fair argument between Queenship and Lord Chesterfield, which ran in fairly close company for the entire distance. They took the last jump on close terms, but Queenship had the most left in the stretch run, finally winning easily by two lengths. She interfered with Lord Chesterfield a little after taking the sixth jump, but it made no difference in the result. Duty went down heavily over the seventh jump. Chancery belted the third risk and no amount of inducement could get him to jump thereafter. Sea Rover, which finished a hopelessly beaten off third, pulled up so lame his jockey had to dismount and lead him back to the judge's stand.

Hat Mitchell finally discovered a spot where he could show his heels to a field of youngsters and he fairly ran away from them. He took the day's opener, a dash of four and a half furlongs in a big canter, leading from start to finish and winning by five lengths. Major Bird was second the same distance in front of Jane Oaker. It was a poor field at best.

Money Mues seemed to be much the best in the second race, a dash of six furlongs, and such he proved to be. Joe Martin attempted to keep company with him for the first half, but he had run the latter into submission long before the head of the stretch had been reached, and the rest was easy sailing. He won by three lengths from The Lady, she beating Joe Martin four for second place. The Lady ran in improved form and is about ready to win. Ranco ran nowhere near to the form of the excellent performance put up at the same track last week. The others were never contenders.

A nose and a neck on the post was the finish in the fifth race, Amiraute just lasting long enough to beat the fast closing South Trimble, with Rag Tag third. South Trimble would have won in another stride. He was badly out-run in the early part of the race but finished with great speed. Rag Tag faltered in the closing strides. Hoodwink had enough when a sixteenth out.

The last race of the day went to Baird, he taking the lead after the first half had been run and was never afterward headed, winning easily by one and a half lengths. Mondoro, backed heavily by the talent, finished five lengths before Prairie Dog. Mondoro failed to show the remarkable turn of speed displayed in his last effort, and altogether ran a disappointing race. Evelyn Byrd and Little Duchess II. ran well for about a half mile.

WORTH RACING PROGRAM.

Robert A. Hiller, the new secretary of the Worth Jockey Club, has assumed his duties of office and outlined the policy of the club for the fall meeting of October 10 to 26 inclusive. Forty-two thousand dollars or more will be distributed among the winning owners during the fifteen days' racing. The chief feature of the opening day will be the Autumn Handicap, with $1,000 added. Three other races, with $1,000 added by the club, will be run during the meeting, while on Tuesdays purses of $700 and on Thursdays purses of $800 will be the main features of the card. Purses of $400, $500 and $800 will supplement these.

The day after the track closed after its spring meeting a force of men was put to work by the Worth Jockey club. New and commodious barns have been built and no expense has been spared to make the Worth plant one of the most practical and complete courses in the western country.

Already Secretary Hiller has received applications from many of the best stables now racing here for stabling room, and a few of the eastern stables are expected to stop over at Worth before going west or south. New Orleans will have a larger gathering of good horses than has ever been known there before. It has been intimated that many of the best race horses now racing at Chicago will winter at Memphis and be raced in the spring at New Orleans prior to the opening of the spring meeting of the New Memphis Jockey Club. All this tends to help the Worth Jockey Club's fall meeting, as it will keep the horses of good class here that might otherwise ship to San Francisco.

NEW ORLEANS STAKES.

The season of winter racing at New Orleans will be inaugurated Thursday, November 28, and will cover at least one hundred days. Secretary Clark has announced a list of twenty-one stakes which will be run off during the progress of the meeting and which, instead of being of guaranteed value, as heretofore, are on the much more satisfactory added money system. The list of stakes and the dates of their running are as follows:

Thursday, November 28, The Inaugural Handicap, $1,250 added, 3-4 mile.

Saturday, November 30, Magnolia Selling Stakes, $1,000 added, 1 mile.

Saturday, December 7, Palmetto Steeplechase, $1,000 added, short course.

Time, 12, 23 3/4, 35 1/4, 47 1/4, 1:00 3/4, 1:13.
Winner—Ch. c. by Sir Modred—Katrine.
Went to post at 2:30. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Modrine, fresh and good, ran close up to the stretch, where he drew to the front with a brilliant burst of speed. Smoke tired badly at the end and was probably short. Bellario was closing very strongly at the end. Belle of Lexington was challenged in the first half by Smoke and after that all the others quickly passed her.
Scratched—28101 Alard Scheck, 116; 281013 Chuctanunda, 116; 28069 Sir Oliver, 110; 27140 Touraine, 110; 27718 Sly, 110; 28623 Roxane, 110.
Modrine, show, 1 to 2. Smoke, show, out. Bellario, show, 1 to 2. Belle of Lexington, show, out.

28179 SECOND RACE—1 1-8 Miles. $1,000 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—B. c. by Charaxus—Ethie.
Went to post at 3:00. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Ethics was lucky and well handled. It was a poor race from a time standpoint and with any kind of effort on McGinn's part Hammock would have beaten him. As it was the places horses were running stronger than the favorite at the end. Fatalist's race was extra good for her. Little Daisy came again at the end after being apparently beaten off. Alfred Vargrave ran a bad race. The Black Scot showed the way for three-quarters at a good clip and quit at the end to almost a walk.
Scratched—(28157) Intrusive, 110; 28102 Alsike, 97.
Ethics, show, out. Hammock, show, 7 to 5. Fatalist, show, 8 to 5. Alfred Vargrave, show, 2 to 5.

Time, 1:08.
Winner—B. c. by Tithonus—Yorkville Belle.
Went to post at 3:30. At post 22 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Pretorius received a lucky break which, combined with some rough riding at the end, won for him. Both Emshree and Homestead were crowded on the rail by the winner in the last sixteenth. The Featherstone colt is a supposed good one and Homestead is showing steady improvement. Pearl Finder was closing very fast at the end. Lux Casta had no chance with her jockey. Gay Boy was prominent in the stretch, but his weight stopped him in the last furlong. Otis is still palpably out of form. Sun Shower failed signally in the stretch and was under the whip early.
Scratched—28069 Sir Oliver, 128; 27895 Leonid, 108; 27237 Major Daingerfield, 108.

Winner—B. c. by Candlemas—Tenerine.
Went to post at 4:15. At post 25 minutes. Start straggling. Won handily; second easily. Ten Candles is in grand form, waited on the pacemaker to the last furlong, where superior jockeyship enabled him to beat out the badly ridden Paul Clifford, which displayed phenomenal speed and staying powers. Gold Heels was badly interfered with in the first quarter and after a rough passage came fast at the end. Herbert again broke so slowly that he was practically left in the first hundred yards, but made up an immense gap. Alard Scheck is troubled with bad feet and the hard track is against him but was going, as usual, strongly in the stretch. Reina appeared to be a contender on the stretch turn but the tremendous pace told on her. She was eased up at the end and ran a very fine race.
Scratched—28100 Decanter, 103; 28157 Bedeck, 90.
Ten Candles, show, 8 to 5. Paul Clifford, 3 to 1. Gold Heels, show, 3 to 5.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

J. B. B., Chicago: (1) A parollee bet on three horses to run second wins when two run second and the third, there being no place odds against it, runs third or unplaced. There being no odds for place against the horse that ran third or unplaced it drops out as a factor. (2) A parollee on three horses with a stipulated limit of $100 of winnings is not terminated if the winnings on the first two horses amount to $100 or more. It must remain in controversy until the three horses have run and if the third horse loses the bet is lost.

The fast race mare Madrilene by Fonso—Peg Woffington, by Longfellow, is dead at the farm of her owner, T. C. McDowell. Madrilene won a number of races during her career on the turf, running a half mile in 0:50 and six furlongs in 1:13, as a two-year-old. She was a half sister to the sensational David Garrick, and had been in the stud but one year.

Subscriber, Chicago. As a two-year-old Hamburg was beaten as follows: By Bowling Brook and Laudeman at Sheephead Bay in the the Double Event June 22, 1897. By Archduke at Saratoga August 6. By Requitat at Sheephead Bay September 1, and by Previous at the same track September 4. As a three-year-old he was beaten by Bowling Brook and Previous in the Belmont at Morris Park May 26, 1898.

Alfred Lakeland, well known as a trainer, and a brother of William Lakeland, who is even better known in the turf world, is in Bellevue Hospital.

Winner—B. f. by Madison—Carlotta.
Went to post at 5:05. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Little Gem is speedy, received a lucky break and with no assistance from her jockey just lasted out. Lady Sterling closed very fast in the stretch. Lady Radnor at the weight ran a fine race. Prophetic, on the outside and carried wide was going very easy at the end, but had no chance with the jockey. The others were beaten off, Zirl quitting badly.

Winner—Ch. g. by The Hero—Little Grove Queen.

Went to post at 2:45. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second easily. Money Muss was in a soft spot and simply played with his field. The Lady ran in much improved form and is about ready to win. Joe Martin showed speed but could not maintain it far. He is fast, but runs best in mud. Ranco dodged the issue and ran much below his good showing of several days before. Boney Boy might just as well have remained in the stable.

Winner—B. f. by Magnetizer—Queen T.

Went to post at 3:15. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second the same. It was Queenship and Lord Chesterfield for the entire route, both fencing cleanly, but the latter came away easily in the stretch. Soon after taking the eighth jump Queenship bore in slightly on Lord Chesterfield causing him to go almost to his knees. It made no difference in the final result. Sea Rover was so lame after the race that his jockey had to dismount and lead him back to the stand. Chancery bolted the third jump and refused all attempts to make him jump thereafter.

Federal was easily the best of the others. Kunja ran a surprisingly good race and finished strongly. Brutal was given a poor ride. He should have been closer up at the end. Egyptian Prince's race was a joke.

Went to post at 4:15. At post 10 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Amirante closed up strongly in the last eighth, but was lucky to win at that, as South Trimble came with a fine rush in the last fifty yards and would have won in another stride. The latter is a slow beginner but made up much ground in the last quarter. Rag Tag was speedy for five furlongs and then began to falter. Hoodwink had enough when a sixteenth out. John A. Clarke finished fast and altogether ran a fair race. Belle of Minco showed early speed. Coacoa's race was in shocking contrast to her good showing of last Friday. She was beaten off all the way.

BLUE GIRL'S DEFEAT.

Leonora Loring's success over Blue Girl in the Great Filly Stakes Saturday and the manner in which Shaw rode the latter are thus described in the New York Sun of Sunday:

"Shaw's ride on the crack filly, Blue Girl, was pronounced by hundreds of experts to be the acme of incompetency. While Blue Girl was beaten only by a head by L. M. Myers' Leonora Loring for the bulk of the prize money, it was the consensus of opinion that Blue Girl, with any kind of good handling, would have been able to win easily. In explaining his action in applying to the stewards for an investigation, Mr. Whitney said to The Sun reporter:

"I have asked the steward to investigate Shaw's ride on my filly, Blue Girl, because I think the boy's performance was not what it should have been. In fact, it was about as poor a performance as I have ever seen. Shaw received no instructions to hold a position in the race, but was merely told to use his best judgment. If he did use his best judgment, it was anything but good, to say the least. From what I saw of the race, Shaw, after getting under way well, took Blue Girl in behind the bunch and stayed there until the beginning of the stretch was reached. Then he had a clear track ahead of him, but failed to put up a vigorous finish. In fact, I thought his finish was very weak. In my estimation Blue Girl should have won with ease and that's why I want to have the race investigated. Shaw had the mount on Blue Girl because he was engaged by Mr. Madden two weeks ago for this event, and before I had purchased Mr. Madden's interest in the filly. That was the reason Turner did not ride instead of Shaw. Turner would have had the mount on my other filly, Rose of May, instead of Bullman, but he could not make the weight."

"Mr. Madden also expressed the opinion that Shaw's ride was either a piece of gross carelessness or bad judgment. Down in the betting ring there were several ugly rumors, one of which was that in certain poolrooms Blue Girl, or rather the Whitney stable, was "laid against" extensively. Shaw is one of the best jockeys in this country just now. He is under contract to ride for George E. Smith, who is popularly known as "Pittsburg Phil," but he has been riding for other owners, including the Fleischmanns, Frank Farrell, Madden and others, with marked success. During the recent meeting at Saratoga Shaw and "Pittsburg Phil" were mixed up in an alleged scandal concerning the running of St. Finnan and Latson in a certain race, but after the stewards had examined the layers' sheets no action was taken because of a lack of proof that any wrong had been perpetrated.

"The Great Filly Stakes, distance three-quarters of a mile down the new Futurity course, was worth $23,705, of which $24,905 went to the winner. As Yankee's share of the Futurity was $38,910, it can be seen readily what Mr. Whitney has lost within a week. But the winning of money prizes is a secondary consideration with Mr. Whitney. He wants to win because of the sport to be enjoyed, and the vast army of racegoers believe that he should win and that he is entitled to the squarest treatment. In yesterday's big race Mr. Whitney had Blue Girl, Gunfire and Rose of May, which were combined favorites. They opened at 4 to 5, but the public money came pouring into the ring so rapidly that the post price was 3 to 5 and out. Lux Casta, which ran second to Yankee in the Futurity, was second choice at 5 to 1, while Leonora Loring was third in favor at 7 to 1. The others were at all sorts of prices, the field consisting of twelve starters. Blue Girl carried top weight, 124 pounds. When they paraded past the stand 20,000 spectators looked on and nearly all of them expected to see the Whitney colors, 'light blue and brown cap,' finish in the van."

"Once at the post and there was little or no delay. Starter Fitzgerald dropped his flag when the field was in motion and in perfect alignment. Blue Girl got away as well as any. After going a furlong or so Blue Girl suddenly seemed to be shut off. This was a strange proceeding, inasmuch as the Sir Dixon filly had plain sailing in front of her. Behind a bunch, however, Shaw kept Mr. Whitney's champion, and to those who saw the jockey when he got to the bend in the track it seemed as if he was sitting perfectly still. Blue Girl was well in the rack then and the onlookers were dazed. Leonora Loring, who, by the way, had an unbeaten record up to last Thursday, when Clarence H. Mackay's Heno took her measure in the Dash Stakes, was leading the procession all the way down to the bend and she was traveling so swiftly, yet so easily, that Odum did not exert himself at all, except to keep the filly straight and true. Joseph and Lux Casta, who had tried to keep pace with Leonora Loring for the first quarter of a mile, fell back out of it and their places were taken by Hatasoo, 20 to 1, and Sun Shower 60 to 1. Leonora Loring had a length the best of these two youngsters at the last furlong post.

"There it was that Blue Girl, getting into a position where she was unobstructed, began to move after the vanguard in lively fashion. Shaw, however, did not seem to be riding with his usual skill, and the crowd began to yell in dismay. Blue Girl, however, was so fleet of foot that she killed off Hatasoo in a few jumps and then got even with Sun Shower. Leonora Loring, holding the rail, still had a lead of a length, and Odum, intently watching Beauchamp on Sun Shower, was not urging his mount at all, when suddenly he caught sight of Blue Girl within a half a length of him. Shaw was now riding with his hands, but with no whip as usual, and Blue Girl was gaining with every leap. Odum cut Leonora Loring loose and the finish between the two was a hair-raiser. Many thought that Blue Girl had won, but the judges decided that Leonora Loring was the winner by a short head, or a nose. Sun Shower was third, a length back, being a head in front of Par Excellence, Flora Pomona, Gunfire and Rose of May, heads apart in the order named. The winner's time was 1:14. L. M. Myers, owner of Leonora Loring, a bay filly by Dr. MacBride—Hoyden, purchased her as a yearling for $150. He and Dave Gideon, together with their friends, made a killing in the ring on the filly's victory."

AMERICAN SPORTING MANUAL.

The American Sporting Manual of 1901 contains all racing records at large, revised and complete up to the end of 1900; four handicapping systems with directions for their practical application, a table showing how to compute bookmaking percentages, track records of all the recognized tracks of the country, the western and eastern scales of weights, tables showing the comparative speed of tracks, a complete list of pugilistic contests of 1900 of any consequence, trotting and pacing records at all distances and a list of the new 2:15 trotters of 1900. Also a complete record of performances at all styles of billiards.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

J. E. McDonald has returned from France, after having safely landed Mr. W. K. Vanderbilt's stallion Halma and mares at the breeding farm at Ville Bonne, France. The trip was remarkable, in two weeks to a day from leaving Lexington, Ky., the horses were in their new home. Mr. McDonald has engaged "Eddie" Hughes to train the horses now in France to be raced there next year. Hughes trained "Jerse" Dunn's famous mare Sunny Slope, also the good horse Jack Point.

The good brown mare Hypatia foaled in 1879, by Waverly, out of Sister to Ruric, by Sovereign, and she out of Levity, by Trustee, is dead at the Balgown Stud. Hypatia was the dam of Hypocrite (the dam of Admiration), Gen. Miles, Rose Standish, etc.

May Kennedy, dam of O'Connell, Ed Austin and many other winners, is thought to be safely with foal to Sorcerer. The yearling filly by St. Florian, out of May Kennedy, is growing into an excellent individual.

Bab, Ordnung, Lady Meddlesome and other horses belonging to John F. Schorr, which he left in California last spring, are being given slow work at Oakland and will be ready for early racing.

The bay horse Compensation, 5, by Tournament—Citronella, the property of B. E. Beach-fell at Saratoga on August 25, broke his leg and was shot.

Time, 1:24, 24, 49, 1:18.
Winner—B. h. by Julien—Old Miss.
Went to post at 3:35. At post 17 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second handily. Villmar was well away, ridden carefully, sent along at the stretch head and came home as his rider pleased. Corel was in all sorts of trouble to the last fifty yards, but ran a plucky and game race. H. S. Tobacco, suited by the going, did his best. May Violet showed early speed and hung on gamely. With a good ride she might have won. Tempe, a slow beginner, finished fast and will do at a longer distance. Governor John showed some early speed.
Scratched—27954 Zanetto, 110; 28044 King Dodds, 107.
Overweights—Governor John, 4 pounds.
Villmar, show, evens. Corel, show, 6 to 1. H. S. Tobacco, show, out.

Time, 1:31, 25, 49, 1:16, 1:42.
Winner—B. c. by St. Leonards—Glen Fairy.
Went to post at 4:20. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Glenwood, suited by the going and the weights, ran a capital race and stuck to his work gamely in the hard drive from the quarter home. Blink, a bit high in flesh, was scarce up to a bruising race, yet he was probably best. The overweight hurt him and Howell gave him a jerky and uneven ride taking him off his stride at the first quarter when he wanted to run, again taking him back at the half when he seemed to have Glenwood in hand. Blink came strongly at the finish, but the nature of his race had taken a lot out of him. South Breeze seems to have gone off. She ran an unreasonably dull race. Lee Bruno was a spectator.
Scratched—28170 Ethel Wheat, 102.
Overweights—Blink, 4 pounds.
No show betting on first three.

Time, 1:24, 24, 36, 49, 1:02.
Winner—Ch. f. by The Commoner—Elletta.
Went to post at 4:49. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Attelle revealed in the going and showed a lot of early speed, ran the fast Ogle and Wakita into exhaustion, came on with great resolution and finished going away. Wakita ran an excellent race under the weight. She was out off when making a bid at the stretch turn, but would not be denied and came on the outside. Ogle showed the most early speed, but did not seem to relish the sloppy going. WisSENDINE, badly ridden, ran a very dull race, but came fast at the end.
Scratched—28086 Harry Shafer, 105.
Attelle, show, 1 to 2. Wakita, show, evens. Ogle, show, out. WisSENDINE, show, 3 to 5.

Time, 1:21, 24, 48, 1:15, 1:22.
Winner—B. m. by Knight of Ellerslie—Dearest.
Went to post at 5:23. At post 23 minutes. Start poor. Won handily; second driving. Nearest off in front and ridden hard and perfectly was put to her very best to win. Salinda ran a good race and Hall kept her right there to the stretch turn. Here, Nearest stole a useful length and a half. At that Salinda was best when a sixteenth from home and was winning when Hall weakened in the drive. With a good finish she probably would have won. Hilee ran an extra good race. He was coming strongly for the last three furlongs and might have won had not Salinda interfered with him on three occasions. Jake Weber, off badly, closed a lot of ground. Revoke was kicked while at the post, away badly, and given a weak ride. Tulla Fonso was cut off after the start. Prima II and Tom Collins had no chance from where they got off.
Overweights—Hilee, 3 pounds; Revoke, 4.
Nearest, show, out. Salinda, show, 4 to 1. Hilee, show, 2 to 1. Prima II, show, 3 to 5. Tom Collins, show, 4 to 5.

Time, 2:31, 48, 1:01, 1:08.
Winner—Ch. g. by Rayon d'Or—Ortega.
Went to post at 3:04. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Ordeal went to the front when called on and won as his rider pleased. Nona B. did her best, was well ridden and had no mishaps. She caught John Todd tiring in the run home and easily disposed of him. John Todd showed early speed, but tired. Give and Take took a wide turn into the stretch and lost several lengths. Infallible began slowly. Prince Esher did not run his race.

Winner—Blk. h. by Top Gallant—Vesper.
Went to post at 4:02. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second ridden out. Tip Gallant finished fast and came away easily in the last eighth. He had to go all around his field to get to the front. Ziegfeld was driving to the limit. Punctual was outrun to the stretch but he was wearing Ziegfeld down in the last furlong. Rare Perfume was pulled up at the start. Avoca ran well for three quarters. Princess Aurora would not break.
Scratched—28158 Micon, 100; 28054 Idle Chat, 93.
Overweights—Tip Gallant, 3 pounds; Boidle, 2; Princess Aurora, 2.
